Vicar

To the Students of Sunday School

Dear Beloved Children, Teachers, and Parents,

Greetings to you all in the precious name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

It is with great joy that I share this message with each one of you through our Sunday School Magazine. Sunday School is not merely a place where we learn Bible stories; it is where we grow in faith, build Christian character, and prepare ourselves to become faithful disciples of Christ.

LOVE

Jesus taught us the greatest commandment:

“Love one another as I have loved you.” (John 13:34)

Love is the foundation of every Christian life. When we truly love God, we learn to love our parents, teachers, friends, neighbours, and even those who may be different from us. Let your words be kind, your actions be gentle, and your heart always be filled with compassion.

CARE

Along with love comes care. Caring for one another reflects the heart of Christ. A caring child helps others, comforts those who are sad, shares with those in need, and protects God's wonderful creation. Small acts of kindness can make a great difference in someone's life.

RESPECT

We must also learn the value of respect. Respect begins with honoring God and extends to our parents, teachers, elders, friends, and everyone around us. When we speak politely, listen carefully, obey with humility, and appreciate others, we become shining examples of Christ's love in our homes, schools, and communities.

Dear children, always remember that your character is more valuable than your achievements. Let your life be a reflection of God's love through your words, thoughts, and actions. Pray every day, read the Holy Bible regularly, attend Sunday School faithfully, and allow Jesus to guide every step of your life.

I sincerely appreciate the dedicated efforts of our Sunday School Headmaster, teachers, parents, and all those who work tirelessly to nurture our children in the knowledge of God's Word. May the Lord richly bless your faithful service.

As you read this magazine, may it inspire you to grow in wisdom, strengthen your faith, and encourage you to live a life filled with Love, Care, and Respect. May God bless each one of you abundantly and help you become bright lights for His glory.

With prayers and blessings,

Message from the Sunday School Principal

With immense joy and gratitude to God, St Peter's Sunday School, Perth, proudly presents the very first edition of our magazine, Nuhro.

This magazine marks a special milestone in the journey of our Sunday School and beautifully reflects the talents, creativity, and faith of our children.

For the first time, our young learners have come together to share their thoughts, stories, drawings, poems, and reflections. Every page bears witness not only to their God-given gifts but also to their growing relationship with our Lord Jesus Christ. I hope this magazine inspires and encourages every reader to continue growing in faith, love, and service.

Sunday School is much more than a place of learning. It is a nurturing community where children are rooted in Christian values, guided by God's Word, and encouraged to become faithful disciples of Christ. I sincerely thank our dedicated teachers and supportive parents whose commitment, encouragement, and prayers have made this first edition possible.

As we celebrate this new beginning, may Nuhro continue to be a platform that inspires creativity, strengthens faith, and brings our Sunday School family closer together in Christ. May God abundantly bless everyone who has contributed to this wonderful endeavour, and may His light continue to guide us in all that we do.

Gratefully in Christ,

CAIN AND ABEL

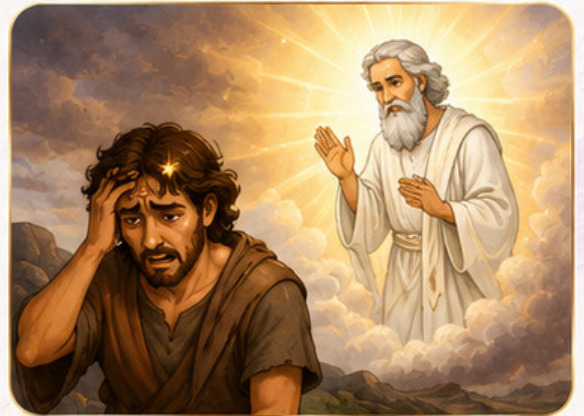

Adam and Eve lived happily in the garden of Eden. Soon after that, they were blessed with two sons. One was called Cain while the other was called Abel. The two brothers grew up to be strong and intelligent men. Abel became a shepherd, as he took care of flocks of sheep. While Cain became a farmer, planting delicious crops in the fields. Both the brothers lived happily until...

One day, both the brothers decided to make an offering to God, hoping to get some money. Abel gave one of his whitest, fluffiest and well-behaved sheep. Cain gave God his best produce of crops, nice, tasty and fresh. But God liked Abel's gift the best and didn't even accept Cain's offering! This made Cain sad, angry and more jealous about Abel, so Cain made a plan to kill Abel! God warned Cain that there was sin in his heart. But Cain didn't care. He thought for a while and finally made a plan to kill Abel.

In the evening, Cain invited Abel for a walk. Cain just talked like nothing happened. Once the brothers were at a deserted area, Cain hastily killed Abel! Cain went home with no regret of what he did. As Cain reached home, God sensed that something was wrong, so he asked, "Cain, where is Abel?" Cain replied, "I don't know". "You can't expect me to always look after him!"

"No, Cain! You have killed Abel! His blood cries out to me in protest!" You have sinned! And I cannot forgive that! From now on you will be a restless wanderer and no land will give you food! Cain begged God to forgive him but God would not relent! However, God placed a special mark on Cain's forehead to ensure that no one will harm him. So Cain left in shame and decided to live in East Eden.

In this story, we understand that Cain's jealousy and anger resulted in his destructive behaviour of killing his own brother Abel. Despite God's warning about "the sin in his heart", Cain didn't take any steps to contain his resentment. This story teaches us that our devotion to our God should be expressed and offered through our actions, thoughts, and love for people around us. We should be truthful in our intentions, our thoughts and should not be for our personal gains.

“Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you.”

– Ephesians 4:32

THE END!

THE LOVE AND COMPASSION OF JESUS IN HIS TEACHINGS

One of Jesus' most important teachings was to love your neighbour as yourself. This means that he taught us to treat others with respect, kindness and love. This teaching requires you to consider how your actions impact the people around you; and build healthier communities by encouraging others to treat people with kindness.

Another great example of Jesus' love and compassion in his teachings is the parable of the good Samaritan. Jesus tells the story of a Jewish man who is beaten, robbed and left on the road. Despite the tension and prejudice between their people, a Samaritan helps the man by carrying him on his donkey, applying wine and oil to his wounds, and paying for his expenses. Through this teaching, Jesus redefines compassion by showing that true love knows no boundaries and that you can be kind to anyone.

Other than that powerful example of Jesus' compassion is the parable of the lost sheep. Jesus describes a shepherd who leaves his ninety-nine sheep in the field to look for the 100th sheep who is missing. When he eventually finds the sheep, he pats on his shoulders and celebrates joyfully with the neighbours and his friends. This shows that Jesus values everyone. He doesn't dismiss the sheep as a minor loss because he still has the rest of his flock, but he cares about the forgotten.

The last example of Jesus' unconditional love is found in the command to love your enemies during the sermon on the mount. Instead of the normal expectation to love your neighbour and friends, Jesus told his followers to bless those who curse them, do good to those who hate them and pray for those who are mean to them. This displays compassion because Jesus pointed to the perfect grace of God, saying that true love requires mercy and empathy; even to those who may oppose you or mis treat you.

RAISING OF LAZARUS

A man named Lazarus had fallen gravely ill. He lived in Bethany with his two sisters, Mary and Martha. Mary was the woman who later poured the expensive perfume on the Lord's feet and dried them with her Hair. The two sisters sent a message to Jesus saying, "Jesus the one whom you love is sick." Jesus had heard the news and said, "Lazarus's sickness will not lead to death, no it happened for the Glory of God So the Son of God will receive glory from this."

Jesus stayed in the same place for two days until telling his disciples that Jesus and they must return to Judea. But the Disciples protested saying that the people in Judea had tried to stone him over 12 hours before. However, Jesus replied saying "There are twelve hours of the day. During the day people can see because of the light, but at night there is no danger of stumbling as there is no light. Our Lazarus has died and we must go awaken him. So, Jesus and his disciples started their journey to Judea.

When Jesus had arrived, he was told that Lazarus had been in his grave for 4 days. Bethany was only a few miles away from the road from Jerusalem. Many people had come to console Mary and Martha for their loss. When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went to meet them while Mary stayed at their house. Martha said to Jesus "Lord if only you had come earlier my brother may have been alive but even know I know that God will give you whatever you ask." Jesus replied with Yes, he will rise again, I am the resurrection and the life. Anyone who believes in me will live even after dying, everyone who lives in me and believes in me will near die, do you believe this Martha? Martha replied with "yes lord, I will always believe you are the Messiah the son of God the one who came to the world from God."

Then she returned to Mary and called her aside from the mourners and said that Jesus was here. So, Mary immediately went. Jesus had been waiting outside the village where he had met Martha. When Mary saw Jesus, she fell to his feet and wept saying "Lord if only you had come earlier my brother might have still been alive." When Jesus saw her wailing and crying a deep anger welled up within him and troubled him. "Where is he?" said Jesus. Then Jesus Wept.

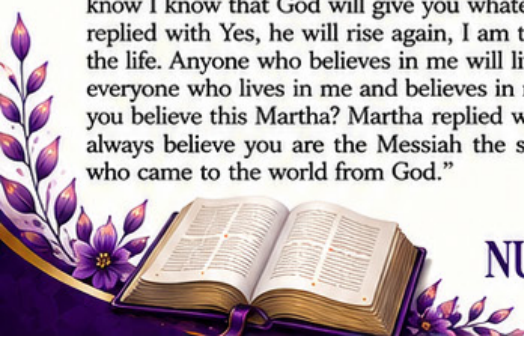

Bystanders watched saying how much love Jesus had for Lazarus while other wondered if Jesus could heal a blind man, then why cannot he not resurrect Lazarus. Jesus was still angry and as he arrived at the cave told the people to roll the stone covering the tomb over. But Mary and Martha Protested saying, "Lord it has been days if its open it would have a strong odor. Jesus said, "Didn't I tell you that you will see God's Glory if you believe?" So, they rolled the stone aside.

Jesus looked up to the heavens and said, "Father thank you for hearing me you always hear me, but I said out loud for the sake of all these people that they may believe that you sent me to earth." Then Jesus Shouted, "Lazarus, Come out!" And the dead man came out wrapped with graveclothes and headcloth around his face. "Unwrap him and let him Go." said Jesus.

The story of the miracle Jesus had done by resurrecting Lazarus shows the power of Jesus on Physical death and the promise of eternal life of those who believe.

God's Love

Stepping in the darkness and finding no one,
But deep inside your heart, Someone is blessing you
He is stronger, mightier, braver and kinder than us.
Oh... He is my King, He is your King, He is our King
He is called Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

Nothing can stop God from loving us
The darkness can't stop Him; the evilness can't stop him
Nothing can stop Him from loving us.

If we sin against Him, He will give us a kind warning
Nothing can stop God from loving us.

We need to say sorry for every sin we have committed
In the future, we will learn to do what is right
We want to be good, just like God.

That is how we become the children of God.

SIMON PETER

– Benito basil –

Early Life

Peter, originally named Simon, was a fisherman from Bethsaida on the Sea of Galilee. He worked alongside his brother Andrew until Jesus called him to become one of His disciples. Jesus later gave Simon the name Peter, meaning “rock,” reflecting the important role he would play in the future Christian Church.

A Disciple of Jesus

Peter quickly became one of Jesus’ closest followers and was present during many significant events in His ministry. He is best known for declaring that Jesus was the Messiah, demonstrating his strong faith and understanding of Jesus’ identity. Peter often acted as a spokesperson for the disciples due to his confident and passionate personality.

Failure and Forgiveness

Although Peter was deeply devoted to Jesus, he denied knowing Him three times on the night of His arrest. After realising what he had done, Peter was filled with regret. Following His resurrection, Jesus forgave Peter and restored him as a leader among the disciples, showing the Christian values of forgiveness and redemption.

Legacy

After Jesus’ ascension, Peter became a key leader of the early Church. He preached to thousands of people, helped spread Christianity throughout the Roman Empire, and encouraged believers during times of persecution. His transformation from an ordinary fisherman into a respected religious leader has made him one of the most influential figures in Christian history.

His Light, My Way

When I don't know what to do,
I ask God to guide me.
I know He sees the whole path
even when I can only see a few steps.

His light shows me enough
to keep moving forward.
It is not bright all at once,
but it is steady and just enough .

When I feel afraid,
I remember that God walks before me.
He knows every way,
and he does not let me to walk alone.

So I follow His light,
trusting that each step
will lead me closer to where He wants me to be,
His kingdom

Mark's Gospel

For Children

the Gospel of
MARK

Written by Ivin Basil

Who was Saint Mark?

Description:

Saint mark also known as Mark the evangelist is the person who is described the author of Marks Gospel. Born is C. 12AD pentapolis North Africa. It is the second book in the new testament. The Gospel of Mark is the oldest synoptic gospel is Mark since Matthew and Luke essentially incorporated the story in their books. It's also the shortest. Because he was not one of Jesus' twelve apostles, some scholars claimed his version came from Apostle Peter.

. The book's focus is on answering the question, "Who is Jesus?" The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, is used as a starting point. The second message focuses on what it means to be a follower of Jesus. "Whoever wants to be my disciple must renounce their desires and take up the cross." Mark 8:34, NIV.

. The book of Mark is written as a motivational sermon, summoning readers to action. And given that this book includes 9 Parables of Jesus Christ in total it's important to have the parables in Mark's Gospel explained.

Mark 4:26-29 Parable of the growing seed:

He also said, "This is what the kingdom of God is like. A man scatters seed on the ground. 27 Night and day, whether he sleeps or gets up, the seed sprouts and grows, though he does not know how. 28 All by itself the soil produces grain—first the stalk, then the head, then the full kernel in the head. 29 As soon as the grain is ripe, he puts the sickle to it, because the harvest has come."

how does this teach us:

In this parable, Jesus uses the analogy of a seed growing to describe the kingdom of God. The man who scatters the seed represents someone who shares the message of the kingdom, and the seed represents the Word of God or the message itself.

The parable teaches us (Christians) several important lessons.

Firstly, it emphasizes the idea that the growth of the kingdom of God is not solely dependent on human effort. Just as a seed sprouts and grows by itself, the expansion of the kingdom is ultimately the work of God.

Lastly, the parable points to the inevitability of the harvest. Just as the farmer reaps the ripe grain when the time comes, there will be a culmination of the kingdom's growth—a final harvest or judgment. This reminds believers of the need to be prepared and ready for the fulfillment of God's kingdom. Overall, the Parable of the Growing Seed encourages believers to trust in God's work, be patient in the growth of the kingdom, and be prepared for the eventual fulfillment of God's purposes.

Belief About Jesus

In the Gospel of Mark, there is a story that highlights Jesus' compassion and healing mystery. It is found in Mark 1:40-45:

"A man with leprosy came to Jesus and begged him on his knees, 'If you are willing, you can make me clean.' Filled with compassion, Jesus reached out his hand and touched the man. 'I am willing,' he said. 'Be clean!' Immediately the leprosy left him and he was cleansed.

Jesus sent him away at once with a strong warning: 'See that you don't tell this to anyone. But go, show yourself to the priest and offer the sacrifices that Moses commanded for your cleansing, as a testimony to them.' Instead, he went out and began to talk freely, spreading the news. As a result, Jesus could no longer enter a town openly but stayed outside in lonely places. Yet the people still came to him from everywhere."

This story showcases several important aspects of Jesus' character and ministry:

Meaning behind this story: This story showcases Jesus' compassion, healing power, respect for religious customs, the impact of personal testimony, and the importance of solitude and prayer. The Voice in the Wilderness

John the Baptist and the message no one wanted to hear

He wore clothing made from camel hair, ate locusts and wild honey, and lived out in the Judean desert before most people had heard his name. By any ordinary measure, John the Baptist was not the kind of person you would expect to draw a crowd. And yet, somehow, he did. People left Jerusalem and the surrounding towns and walked out to the banks of the Jordan River to hear him - and what he told them when they arrived was not particularly comfortable. Repent. Turn around. Something is coming that you are not ready for.

That message, and the man who carried it, sits at a fascinating crossroads in history. John belongs to both worlds - the long tradition of Hebrew prophecy and the opening movement of the Christian story - without fully inhabiting either one. He is, in a sense, a hinge figure: the last of one era and the first announcement of another.

An Unusual Beginning

The Gospel of Luke gives John a birth narrative almost as detailed as Jesus' own. His father Zechariah was a priest, and his mother Elizabeth was a relative of Mary. Both were elderly and childless when the angel Gabriel told Zechariah his wife would bear a son. Zechariah doubted this, and as a result was struck mute until the child was born and named - not after anyone in the family, as custom required, but John, exactly as the angel had instructed.

Luke also records that when the pregnant Mary visited Elizabeth, the unborn John leapt in his mother's womb at the sound of her voice. It is a small detail, but it sets up something the Gospels return to repeatedly: John's entire purpose, from before his birth, was to point toward someone else.

A Prophet in the Old Mould

What made John recognisable to his contemporaries was that he looked and sounded like the prophets they had read about for generations. The camel hair clothing was almost certainly a deliberate echo of Elijah, described in near-identical terms in the second book of Kings. His preaching was blunt in the way Amos and Jeremiah were blunt - not interested in softening hard truths. When the religious leaders came

TEEN TALK

Social Media and Faith: Are We Following Christ Online?

"Let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven." – Matthew 5:16

by irin siby

ONLINE KINDNESS MATTERS

Jesus taught us to love our neighbours as ourselves. This applies online too.

Before you post, comment, share, or message, ask yourself:

- | | |
|--|------------------------------|
| | Is it kind? |
| | Is it truthful? |
| | Is it helpful? |
| | Would I say it face-to-face? |

A simple message can brighten someone's day, while a hurtful comment can leave lasting pain. As followers of Christ, we are called to build others up, not tear them down.

BEING DIGITALLY RESPONSIBLE

The internet never forgets.

Photos, videos, comments, and messages can remain online for years.

Being digitally responsible means:

- 1 Thinking before posting.
- 2 Respecting other people's privacy.
- 3 Avoiding inappropriate content.
- 4 Using technology in healthy ways.

Our online choices affect both ourselves and others. Use technology wisely and responsibly.

STANDING AGAINST CYBERBULLYING

Cyberbullying can seriously affect mental health and wellbeing.

As Christians, we should never participate in bullying, even if everyone else is doing it.

Instead:

- ◆ Speak up when someone is treated unfairly, who are struggling.
- ◆ Report harmful behaviour when necessary.
- ◆ Be a source of encouragement and kindness.

Jesus stood with those who were hurting, and we are called to do the same.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

- 1 How much time do I spend on social media each day?
- 2 Does social media help me grow closer to God or distract me from Him?
- 3 Have I used social media to encourage others?
- 4 Are there any online habits I need to change?
- 5 How can I be a positive Christian influence online?

REPRESENTING CHRIST ONLINE

People often learn about us through our social media profiles.

Ask yourself:

- ✦ Would Jesus be honoured by my online activity?
- ✦ Do my posts reflect love, respect, and integrity?
- ✦ Am I using my platform to encourage others?

Representing Christ doesn't mean being perfect. It means reflecting His love and values both offline and online.

REMEMBER

Technology is a tool.
It can be used for good or for harm.

As young Christians, God calls us to be lights in the world – including the digital world.

FAITH + KINDNESS + RESPECT + INTEGRITY

THE GREAT FRIDAY

A noble man hung up high
All His followers can do is sigh
A Man who sacrificed His life for others
And the one who taught to love one another

But He isn't dead
He's just got a thorny crown on His head
He never stayed there
Neither did He let hope fade

Being alive meant He would rise
Which means this is humanity's prize
We have hope, because He's risen
And His name is Jesus
